Monday 30th May 2016
Cradle Mountain Lodge, Cradle Mountain Tasmania
Following the ACORN Conference in Hobart, why not make your way up to the picturesque North West Coast of Tasmania to the beautiful Cradle Mountain National Park for an unrivalled ultrasound workshop for PeriAnaesthesia Nurses

$25 for ASPAAN MEMBERS $65 FOR NON-MEMBERS

Program
9:00 am - Welcome and introduction

9:15 – 10:15 am - Lecture – An introduction to Physics and Knobology

10:15-10:45 – Practical – Ultrasound machine interaction

10:45 – 10:00 am – Morning Tea

11:00 – 11:30 am – Anatomy, Vascular Access, Tips and Tricks

11:30 – 12:00 am – Practical Scanning Anatomy – differentiating Veins / Arteries, Use of Colour and Doppler

12:00 – 12:45 – Lunch

12:45 –1:45 – Practical Scanning – Vascular Access, using Block Phantoms

1:45 – Feedback / Questions / Open Discussion

2pm – Session end

Venue: Peppers Cradle Mountain Lodge
Situated in the World Heritage listed Cradle Mountain Lake St Clair National Park, in the pristine northwest wilderness of Tasmania – 2 scenic hours drive from Launceston and 1.5 hours from Devonport.

Places are Strictly limited, visit www.aspaan.org.au/events to register today