

National Conference, Hobart, 2020

Call for Abstracts

ACPAN welcomes abstracts from individuals and groups willing to share their clinical practice ideas, education, research or experiences to be presented at this years National Conference being held in Hobart, Tasmania 16th & 17th October.

Abstract submissions are for oral plenary presentations, smaller podium presentations and poster displays relating to Peri-Anaesthesia Nursing. The closing date for submissions is 1st May 2020. All abstracts will be peer reviewed*.

*Questions relating to subject or abstract content may be sent to:
Vera Meeusen or Heather Reynolds - admin@acpan.edu.au*

Your abstract should include the following:

- Title: No more than two lines in length, in normal sentence case and in bold typeface
- Authors: Principal Author, 2nd and 3rd Author etc. Type surname first followed by initials, not qualification
- Text: Up to maximum 300 words

The abstract should address completed work and use the following headings:

- Objective: Describe the purpose of the study/project/topic
- Methods: Briefly outline the project and methods used
- Results: Summarize results, include adequate evidence of support
- Conclusions: Briefly indicate main conclusion/s

Poster presentation information:

- Posters will be by electronic presentation
- Posters must bear the full title of the abstract and author(s) with their affiliation
- The poster should be readable from a distance

Submit abstracts to admin@acpan.edu.au

* In agreeing to provide an oral presentation or poster presentation you warrant that you hold the rights to, or have permission to use any copyrighted material in your presentation or poster and indemnify ACPAN against any action that may be taken if there is a breach of this warranty.

